Dear George,

This is to confirm the invitation to you and Barbara to attend the Donovan Award dinner at the Waldorf in New York on Saturday, February 28. Mrs. Thatcher is to receive the Donovan Award and deliver a major address on East-West relations.

I know you will be seeing the Prime Minister in Washington and can use the weekend to relax. I don't want to press you on this.

These OSS types hold you in special esteem in your ex-DCI capacity and have never had you at one of their functions, but if you'd rather not do it this time there will be another occasion.

Yours,

William J. Casey
